for clients of

Wilsons Advisory and Stockbroking Limited
(“Wilsons”) (INTERMEDIARY)

TERMS OF YOUR AGREEMENT WITH

PERSHING SECURITIES AUSTRALIA PTY LTD
ABN 60 136 184 962 AFSL 338264 (Pershing)

By signing this agreement and/or placing an Order with the Intermediary (as your agent) to purchase or sell International Securities by means of an International Transaction, you accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions set out below in this document (Terms and Conditions).

Part A: International Securities Trading Terms

1. Your agreement with Pershing

This Part A sets out the terms on which Pershing will arrange for International Securities to be executed by an International Broker on your behalf. If you wish to buy or sell or otherwise deal in International Securities, the Intermediary will (as your agent) communicate your Order to Pershing. Pershing will, subject to these Terms and Conditions, arrange for an International Broker to execute that Order on a Foreign Market on your behalf.

In the event that you fail to complete a contract in accordance with these Terms and Conditions or fail to pay the amounts due in respect of an International Transaction, Pershing has direct rights against you, including rights of sale under these Terms and Conditions.

2. Conduct of Business

You acknowledge and agree to comply with these Terms and Conditions and all applicable laws, including the local laws of the country, state, province, territory which govern, and any rules, customs, usages and practices of, the Foreign Market to which relevant International Transaction wholly or partly relates (and of any clearing and settlement facility relevant to that International Transaction) from time to time. Nothing in this clause is to be construed to change the proper law of these Terms and Conditions.

You agree that all International Transactions are subject to the Corporations Act, the laws of the jurisdiction of the Foreign Market to which the International Transaction relates and the rules which govern that Foreign Market (including the operating, execution clearing and settlement rules of that Foreign Market).

You acknowledge that Pershing is not able to arrange for the execution of International Securities for

- a) a US Person
- b) any business that is a 'Shell Bank' as defined in section 33 of the USA Patriot Act.; and
- c) any account that is set up as an omnibus account of a bank, financial entity or other institution.

You agree that you need to provide Pershing with a completed W-8BEN Form prior to placing an order to transact in US securities and to renew the W-8BEN Form every three years

3. Your relationship with Pershing

Your primary relationship will be with the Intermediary. You appoint Pershing as your agent for the purpose of providing dealing, nominee and/or custody services to you in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. You authorise Pershing and any custodian it may appoint from time to time in order to provide the services (including International Brokers) under these Terms and Conditions to act on your instructions given to Pershing by the Intermediary (as your agent).

You agree that the terms of your relationship with Pershing are, in respect of an International Transaction, subject to, and you and Pershing are bound by, the rules which govern the Foreign Market (including the operating, execution clearing and settlement rules of that Foreign Market) to which the International Transaction relates.

4. International trading arrangements

You acknowledge that:

- a. in order to facilitate trades in International Securities for you, Pershing will open an account in Pershing Nominee's name with one or more International Brokers in relation to each Foreign Market (each a Pershing Account);
- b. when you place an Order in relation to an International Transaction and that Order is accepted by Pershing, Pershing will place that order with a relevant International Broker through the Pershing Account as agent for you;
- c. if the International Broker executes the Order, Pershing will hold the benefit of that International Transaction for you;
- d. while Pershing will act as your agent in relation to the International Transaction, neither you nor the Intermediary will become a client of, or acquire any rights of recourse against (whether by way of subrogation or otherwise), the International Broker as a result of entering into this agreement or placing an Order in relation to an International Transaction with Pershing;
- e. the International Broker will not send a confirmation to you in respect of any International Transaction; and
- f. the Foreign Market to which an International Transaction relates may cancel or amend (or require the cancellation or amendment of) the International Transaction in accordance with the rules of that Foreign Market.

5. Orders and instructions

You agree that, if you wish to place any Order, you must do so with the Intermediary (such communications to be given in the form and manner agreed with your Intermediary from time to time), and you authorise the Intermediary, as your agent (and not as the agent of Pershing), to communicate your Order and other instructions or information to Pershing. Pershing will not act on any Orders or other instructions or information communicated directly to it by you (and not the Intermediary).

You may only terminate the Intermediary's authority to act on your behalf by terminating this agreement.

Pershing may at any time, in its absolute discretion, refuse to accept any Order from, or execute Orders for you.

Subject to any instructions from the Intermediary on your behalf, Pershing will generally arrange for Orders to be executed in the sequence in which they are received. However, you acknowledge and agree that:

- a. Your Order may be automatically crossed against other orders before reaching the Foreign Market on which the Order was intended to reach;
- b. Pershing may not be aware of principal orders that are being (or may be) executed, and that direct market access arrangements and program trading may make it impossible to prevent principal orders from being executed at the same time as (or before) your Order. Accordingly, you agree that

Pershing and/or the relevant International Broker may execute principal orders where your Order on the same terms is outstanding;

- c. Unless you notify Pershing to the contrary, you will be taken to have consented to Pershing and/or the International Broker (and/or any of their respective related bodies corporate) trading as Principal with you and agree to pay such commission (if any) on such transactions, each time you place an order with Pershing through your Intermediary; and
- d. you will be charged the normal rate of commission by the Intermediary for Orders which are crossed with Pershing's or the International Broker's principal orders.

6. Sale Orders

Pershing will not accept an Order to sell International Securities on your behalf unless Pershing Nominees holds a sufficient number of those securities on your behalf.

7. Pershing's use of a DMA Service

Pershing may use a direct market access service (DMA Service) under which Pershing may place your Orders directly with an International Broker or the relevant Foreign Market through an electronic automated client order process.

You acknowledge that if Pershing uses a DMA Service:

- a. There may be delays in the processing, execution, amendment or cancellation of an Order entered through the DMA Service and:
 - i. an Order may be wholly or partly filled before an instruction for its amendment or cancellation is processed; and
 - ii. you remain liable to settle the original Order, until any relevant amendment or cancellation is effected;
- b. The execution of an Order placed through the DMA Service may be delayed by filters or other electronic features of the electronic system;
- c. Pershing is not responsible for the processing, execution or cancellation of any Orders submitted through the DMA Service, regardless of who enters such Orders and regardless of whether or not there is an error in the Order entry or for any delays in relation to the same;
- d. except as required by law, Pershing makes no representations or warranties express or implied with respect to the DMA Service;
- e. there are significant risks in trading through a DMA Service because it is serviced by means of computer and telecommunications systems, even where generally accepted industry standards and practices are followed, including that your data may not be protected, and there are risks that other users of the DMA Service, institutions or brokers may be able to see your Orders and other communications relating to trading and execution without your (or Pershing's) consent and that third parties (including persons on private networks) will have the ability to attach to your network.

8. Pershing's right to require your Intermediary to refuse to accept Orders

You acknowledge that Pershing may at any time in its absolute discretion direct the Intermediary to:

- a. refuse to accept you as a client or not to accept Orders from you; or
- b. refuse to accept a particular Order from you.

9. Settlement

You will owe your settlement obligations in respect of any International Transaction directly to Pershing (and not to the Intermediary). Pershing will arrange on your behalf for the International Transaction to be settled with the International Broker (or with the clearing or settlement agent of that International Broker).

You must ensure that payment in full is received by Pershing (and not the Intermediary) at least 1 Business Day before the Settlement Date and Time. Pershing will not accept payment in cash. In accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act, and the regulations made under the Corporations Act, pending settlement by you, these Terms and Conditions and the relevant Confirmation (if any) constitutes notice to you that Pershing may deposit the International Securities purchased for you in a particular International Transaction as security for a loan if Pershing has received and paid for such International Securities on your behalf.

The "Settlement Date and Time" for sales or purchases is the date and time that is specified on the front of the relevant Confirmation. If no date and time are specified or no Confirmation is required to be given, the Settlement Date and Time is 9.00am (Sydney time) on the third Business Day after the execution of the International Transaction. Your Intermediary has no authority to extend the Settlement Date and Time.

Credits in respect of sales are not available until the latest of:

- a. the Settlement Date and Time; and
- b. all amounts due and payable by you to Pershing or your Intermediary have been paid.

10. Foreign exchange services

Where as a result of the execution of an International Transaction by Pershing an amount is to be paid by you to Pershing in a currency (Foreign Currency) other than Australian dollars, Pershing will arrange for conversion of the Australian dollars provided by you to Pershing into that Foreign Currency in a manner, at the conversion rate and at the time that Pershing decides in its absolute discretion.

Where, as a result of the execution of an International Transaction by Pershing or the holding of any International Securities by Pershing Nominees for you under these Terms and Conditions, an amount (such as the proceeds of sale of International Securities or a dividend or other distribution paid in respect of International Securities) is to be paid to you by Pershing in a Foreign Currency, Pershing will arrange for the conversion of the Foreign Currency into Australian dollars in a manner, at the conversion rate and at that the time that Pershing decides in its absolute discretion. Unless Pershing has agreed alternative arrangements with you, Pershing will pay (or arrange for the payment of) all such converted amounts directly to you.

Pershing will not be liable for any loss suffered by you as a result of the conversion of an amount to or from Australian dollars or as a result of the timing of such conversion.

11. No Advice

You acknowledge that Pershing does not provide financial product advice in relation to International Securities, nor does it accept responsibility for any financial product advice given to you by your Intermediary. You must not represent to any person that Pershing has given any financial product advice, or legal, tax, or accounting advice to you.

12. Warranties by you

At the time you open an account with the Intermediary, you will be taken to have represented and warranted to Pershing that:

- a. you are not a US Person for the purposes of US Federal income tax and that you are not acting for, or on behalf of a

US Person and that you are aware that a false statement or misrepresentation of tax status by a US person could lead to penalties under US law;

- b. if your tax status changes or you become a US Person you must notify Pershing (through the Intermediary) within 30 day;
- c. you are not a Shell Bank; and
- d. you are not an omnibus account with a bank, financial entity or other institution.

At the time you place an Order with the Intermediary, you will be taken to have represented and warranted to Pershing that:

- e. you will be in a position to pay for any International Securities to be purchased; and
- f. in the case of a sale, Pershing Nominees is holding a sufficient number of International Securities the subject of the International Order on your behalf and that those securities are unencumbered.

Prior to you placing an order for an International Transaction to be executed in the US market, you have represented and warranted to Pershing that:

- g. you have completed and returned to the Intermediary a W-8BEN form;
- h. you are aware that the failure to complete and return the W-8BEN form may result in you being subject to a maximum withholding tax rate of 30 percent on income derived from US sources and Pershing may cancel the US securities with any loss to be borne by the Intermediary (which may be passed on to you)

13. International trading acknowledgements

- a. Pershing may, at its own discretion, not effect any transaction that it believes would violate any statute or regulation or the rules of regulators of any regulatory or self regulatory body.
- b. International time differences may lead to delays in the receipt of instructions and execution by the International Broker for which Pershing cannot be held liable for
- c. Pershing cannot guarantee that all International orders will be executed or fully executed
- d. Neither the relationship between Pershing and you, nor the services to be provided by Pershing, any custodian or sub-custodian under this agreement, nor any recommendation or advice provided to you, nor any other matter, will give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties on the part of Pershing which would oblige Pershing (or any other person) to accept obligations more extensive than those expressly set out in this agreement or which would prevent or restrict Pershing (or any other person) from carrying out the services to you under these Terms and Conditions.
- e. You acknowledge and agree that Pershing or the International Broker may combine your Orders and orders of persons connected with Pershing or other customers and allocate the investments or proceeds acquired among the participating accounts in a manner that Pershing believes is fair and equitable. You acknowledge and agree that, on occasions, aggregation may result in you obtaining a less favourable price.

14. Settlement using BPAY facility

If you would like to make payment from your cheque or savings account by BPAY, please make arrangements with your participating financial institution. Please quote the Biller Code and your BPAY reference number (see the front page of the relevant Confirmation (if any)).

15. Confirmations

You will be given confirmations as required by the Corporations Act (Confirmations). You authorise Pershing (on its own behalf and on behalf of your Intermediary) to give Confirmations to you electronically to the email address notified to Pershing by your Intermediary on your behalf from time to time for this purpose. Pershing may not provide you with paper copies of Confirmations.

You agree to promptly check the accuracy of every Confirmation sent to you and to notify the Intermediary immediately of any error that you consider may have occurred. In the absence of such notification from you within 24 hours, you will be taken to have accepted the accuracy of the Confirmation. A Confirmation may at any time be re-issued to you in order to correct any errors or omissions and the terms and conditions of the original Confirmation will apply in relation to the reissued Confirmation. Where Pershing enters into multiple International Transactions in order to complete your Order, you authorise Pershing to accumulate those International Transactions on a single confirmation and to specify the volume weighted average price for those International Transactions on that confirmation. If requested by you, Pershing will, if required under the rules of a Foreign Market on which an International Transaction is conducted, give you a statement of all the individual prices of the relevant transactions which are accumulated and averaged in a confirmation.

If you are a wholesale client for the purposes of the Corporations Act, Pershing may elect not to give (and you agree that Pershing may not) any Confirmations to you in relation to International Transactions executed for you.

16. Failure to Settle

You acknowledge that, if you fail to make any payment due to Pershing or otherwise comply with the settlement obligations that you owe to Pershing in relation to an International Transaction in accordance with these Terms and Conditions or the relevant Confirmation, if any (fail to settle), Pershing may do any one or more of the following:

- a. retain any International Security held for you, moneys received on the sale of International Securities for you or moneys due to you pending settlement of any International Transaction;

funds from to reduce your liability to Pershing or to any International Broker), on your account or to which they have access, or payments received for or from you in reduction of your liability to Pershing or to any International Broker; or

- h. cancel (or instruct your Intermediary to cancel) any of your unexecuted Orders,

If you have not met your settlement obligations owed to Pershing or to any International Broker in respect of an International Transaction executed for you by Pershing by the date which is 5 Business Days after the date on which that transaction was executed, it is Pershing's policy (and Pershing may be obliged under a rule of a Foreign Market(s)), without any notice to you:

- a. in the case of a purchase, to execute an International Transaction to close out the failed purchase (by selling the relevant International Securities); or
- b. in the case of a sale, to execute an International Transaction to close out the failed sale (by buying-in the relevant International Securities), and recover any resulting loss from you.

The manner in which Pershing may exercise or not exercise, or the timing of or any delay in any exercise by Pershing of, any right of Pershing under this clause is not to be taken to be financial product advice by Pershing to you, and you must not represent to any person that it is financial product advice by Pershing.

Pershing will not be liable to you for any failure by Pershing to exercise (or any delay in the exercise by Pershing of) any right Pershing may have against you, or any loss incurred by you as a result of Pershing not exercising any of its rights against you immediately, or at all, following any failure by you to comply with your obligations. The rights described in this clause 16 are in addition to any rights that are conferred to Pershing under any rules of a Foreign Market(s).

You acknowledge that Pershing will retain the interest (if any) earned on monies held in its trust account from time to time.

18. Assignment to your Intermediary of debts owed by you to Pershing

In the event of such an assignment, your Intermediary (and each of its directors and employees) will have the rights and powers (and may do all the things) set out in clause 16 as if a reference to Pershing were a reference to your Intermediary.

33. Credit references

You agree that Pershing may make such enquiries as it thinks fit of any person, including your employer, your bank or a credit agency relating to your creditworthiness.

34. Tax File Number

Collection of Tax File Numbers (TFN) is authorised by law and Australian taxation laws and the Privacy Act strictly regulate their use and disclosure. It is not an offence if you choose not to supply its TFN. For more information about the use of TFNs, please contact the Australian Taxation Office.

Once provided to the Intermediary and Pershing, until you tell them otherwise, your TFN will automatically be applied to any future investments that are held by Pershing Nominees for you.

Where you have contracted the Intermediary's and Pershing's services in the course of an enterprise carried on by you, your Australian Business Number (ABN) if applicable, may be supplied in addition to or instead of your TFN.

Where no TFN or ABN has been supplied nor exemption claimed, tax may be taken out of your income distributions at the highest marginal tax rate plus Medicare and any other applicable Government taxes or levies. For joint accounts, each individual must supply a TFN, otherwise the account will be taxed as if no TFN has been supplied.

If you are a non-resident of Australia, or a party to a joint account with a resident, the account will be taxed at the applicable rate for overseas residents as long as the other party has quoted their TFN.

35. Joint Holder

If you are a joint holder, these Terms and Conditions bind each person jointly and severally, and each person is authorised to issue instructions to your Intermediary and give receipts to Pershing in relation to any purchase or sale of International Securities or other matters to which these Terms and Conditions relate.
